

Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day, 2021

Come say Hello & drop off your donations at the welcome booth!

Covid-19 Operating Procedures

Isolate: Event staff, volunteers, vendors, performers, workshop presenters, and general attendees will be notified via email and/or social media posts prior to the event, encouraging people not to attend if they are exhibiting symptoms. Signs explaining the same will be posted at both "Welcome" areas the day of the event.

Masks/Facial Coverings: Event staff, volunteers, vendors, performers, and workshop presenters will comply with any city/county/state/federal orders regarding masks/facial coverings at the time of our event. Should masks/facial coverings be required at the time of our event, we will remove any event staff, volunteers, vendors, performers, and/or workshop presenters from the event area that do not comply with the mask/facial covering order. General attendees not adhering to the mask/facial covering order will be encouraged by event staff to wear a mask. A supply of courtesy masks will be available at both "Welcome" areas the day of the event. We also reserve our vendors the right to refuse service to anyone not adhering to the current mask order.

Distance: Our typical standard spacing for vendors is measured in 10'x 10' spaces, allowing approximately 60 total vendors. We will increase this size to 15'x 10' spaces, allowing approximately 45 total vendors. This will allow more "padding" on each side of our vendors, allowing more room for people to move between.

Reduce Crowds: We will assign event volunteers throughout the day to walk around the event, looking for large crowds of people and encouraging them to disperse and spread out. Vendors will also be instructed via email communication prior to the event to encourage the dispersal of crowds around their booths.

Barriers: Vendors are given a 15'x 10' foot space. Each individual vendor will be responsible for taking their own orders, payments, as well as structuring their space to accommodate social distancing guidelines. Vendors will be strongly encouraged to make use of physical barriers in their spaces, particularly at spaces where payments are made.

Handwashing: Hand sanitizing stations will be provided and maintained by our staff at both "Welcome" areas, portable toilets, performance area, and workshop areas. Vendors will be encouraged to offer a hand sanitizing solution to general attendees on their tables.

Clean: Event staff will regularly sanitize the surfaces of both "Welcome" areas, portable toilets, performance areas, and workshop areas throughout the duration of the event. Vendors will be encouraged to regularly sanitize their wares/tables surfaces throughout the duration of the event.

Communicate: Signage explaining social distancing guidelines, mask/facial covering orders, and hand sanitizing suggestions will be posted at both "Welcome" areas, portable toilets, performance area, and workshop areas. Event staff and volunteers will be directed to be mindful of and address violations of posted pandemic procedures throughout the course of the event.

!!! IMPORTANT PLEASE READ !!!

In recent years we've had a "Westboro-esque" group come to protest our event.

They have the right to protest our event. We have the right to counter-protest.

If the group does arrive, please adhere to the following guidelines.

DO NOT engage them directly in any way.

DO NOT physically touch the protesters on their person and/or their equipment/materials

DO NOT throw projectiles at the protesters.

DO NOT block the street/sidewalk.

DO utilize signs, banners, reflective boards, posters, etc to counter them. Mirror boards are available at the Welcome Tent. Please return these after the protesters disburse.

DO utilize noisemakers, instruments, portable speakers, etc. to drown out their noise Complimentary noisemakers are available at the Welcome Tent!

Our goal is to SAFELY and RESPONSIBLY drown them out with revelry while also promoting a positive image for the Pagan community.

By responding in a way fitting the nuisance they are, we demonstrate that they have no power over us.

We've also noticed they tend to pack up and leave faster when we're having a good time.

Thank you, counter-protest safely, have fun and flaunt your Philly Pagan Pride!

Philadelphia Pagan Pride Board of Directors

WELCOME

Welcome to Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day 2021!

We're back home, gathering in person once again at beautiful Clark Park B. For those of you familiar with this event, we hosted our 2020 event online via a YouTube livestream. While the virtual event was successful, there is a certain level of human connection that doesn't completely come through in a digital format.

While I am ecstatic that we are back together in person, I don't want to downplay the importance of social distance and mask usage given the fact that we are hosting this event while covid-19 and its variants are still very much prevalent in our society. Masks are available at both the Welcome Tent and Acorn Tent. Hand sanitizer is available at every Philadelphia Pagan Pride tent. Vendor spaces have been increased this year which has decreased our maximum number of vendors, but has increased our ability to practice safer social distancing.

Speaking of vendors, we have an incredible assortment of both seasoned veterans and fresh faces this year! Each vendor has their own unique set of products, information and services to offer and I encourage you to stop by each and every one.

Throughout the course of the day, we have a great lineup of entertainment acts. Keep your eyes peeled for Bad Idea Entertainment and watch their "bad ideas" evolve into magic before your eyes. Sing Slavic, who often performs at our sister event, the Parade of Spirits, will be here to deliver a stellar performance. Cat, a long-time supporter of Philadelphia Pagan Pride, will be serenading us with the songs of their new solo project. Let's also not forget Cloud the Pagan Rapper who will be embodying the spirit of Philly with their powerful lyrics and rhythmic beats.

Our Keynote Speakers, Tara-Love Maguire and Christopher Orapello, will each be presenting a one hour keynote presentation at the Performance Area. Chris & Tara are long-time supporters and friends of Philadelphia Pagan Pride in addition to being organizers of South Jersey Pagan Pride Day. We're over the moon to have them here with us today.

Furthermore, we have a wide variety of workshops presented by a host of beautiful people. These workshops offer a great opportunity to not only learn something new, but to network with other Pagans and share our experiences.

In the downtime between workshops, performances, and shopping, don't forget to stop by the labyrinth that is lovingly tended to by our very own Athena Dugan.

Above all, my goal for today is that we all come together as one Pagan community today and henceforth, stronger than ever. That is the heart of this event - the community. We come from a wide variety of spiritual paths, political leanings, and socioeconomic backgrounds but we are all Pagan and that is why we choose to gather year after year; whether that is from the comfort of our own homes or in the dust and grass of Clark Park.

Hail the community!

Jay Gregory President & Local Coordinator

Our Mission

The Mission of the Pagan Pride Project is to foster pride in Pagan identity through education, activism, charity and community. In keeping with that mission, Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day is intended to bring together Pagans and Heathens of all traditions to advance understanding, communication and fellowship among the various communities.

Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day is an open, public, family-friendly harvest event. We welcome anyone to participate who supports our mission and/or wishes to learn more about the Pagan community and our beliefs. An important facet of the mission is to build community among Pagans, and adherents of non-traditional faith systems and to educate the greater community about those beliefs.

The event is designed as a celebration of life and of a community that contains diverse elements. That being said, we also find hate and intolerance in any form abhorrent and counterproductive to our mission.

We on the Philadelphia Pagan Pride Board of Directors are committed to our stated mission as part of the greater Pagan Pride Project. The integrity of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day, its mission and the safety of the participants are our primary obligations as organizers of the event.

Any decisions made regarding changes to the schedule of events are based solely on the effort to fulfill our mission and to provide an enjoyable and meaningful event for our community.

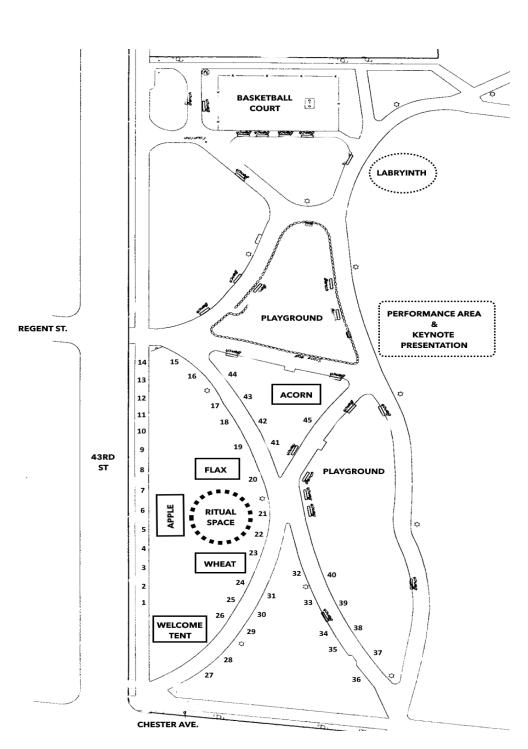

The views, opinions, and outside affiliations of the participants and attendees of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day do not necessarily reflect the views of the organization, its Board, or event volunteers.

In Love and Light, Bright Blessings,

The Board of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day

Tara-Love Maguire Keynote Speaker

Tara-Love Maguire has been a practicing witch for over 30 years, on a path which has been crookedly influenced by Isobel Gowdie, Marie Laveau, and William S. Burroughs. Growing up as a weird kid in and around the New Jersey Pine Barrens, she found witchcraft within the tales and shadows that dwell there. She co-hosts the podcast, Down at the Crossroads, with her sweetheart, Christopher Orapello, and together, they founded Blacktree Coven- a traditional witchcraft coven which exists in the heart of southern New Jersey. Her first book, co-written with Chris, is currently available from Red Wheel/Weiser Books wherever books are sold.

Christopher Orapello Keynote Speaker

Christopher Orapello is an artist, Freemason, witch, and animist with a background in western occultism and ceremonial magick, and has been on his journey for over 30 years. He co-hosts the podcast Down at the Crossroads with his partner, Tara-Love Maguire, is an author with Red Wheel / Weiser Books, a signature artist with Sacred Source (a leading producer and distributor of ancient deity images in North America) and the sculptor of the popular Witch Lord and Witch Queen statues available through Sacred Source. After a growing desire for a more locally-based form of witchcraft, he and Tara-Love founded Blacktree coven in 2014, where they set out to forge a modern approach to Traditional Witchcraft for a new era of praxis. His first book-Besom, Stang, and Sword- co-written with Tara-Love, is currently available from Red Wheel/Weiser Books wherever books are sold.

Workshops

Creating Your Own Tarot Spreads

In this presentation, participants will learn about how to create their own tarot spreads tailor-made to their client's particular needs and questions. Learn to break free of the "how to" books and create something that is unique to you and your clients - something that will act as a lightning rod for the things your client truly wants to know.

Helena Domenic

Learn to Drum in the Rhythms of Life

Explore world rhythms with your drum. Find a deep connection with others as you expand your rhythmic awareness, as well as have fun creating a joyful noise. Drums evolved into an integral partner with dancing, creating a special link between the movement of hands and the movements of bodies and feet. Bring your favorite maker of rhythmic sound and something to sit on.

Franklin Evans

Spellcasting: Calling in the Beat of Earth

Join Poetry Witch Annie Finch for a deep dive into Earth Beat, the rhythm that invokes strength, grounding, and abundance. Through drumming, chanting, and writing, we will learn the secrets of crafting incantations—including adjusting weak spots and getting inspired in rhythm. You will leave with your own unique Earth Spell. Bringing a drum is helpful but not necessary.

Annie Finch

Protest is Prayer: Designing Ritual for Activism

An interactive workshop that will guide participants in identifying potential sources of empowerment and liberation in our deities, our mythologies and our ritual styles. Using these, we can develop ceremonies that support our communities as we strive for justice and realize the potential of ritual as an activist tool.

Magic and Lore of Lithuania

Lithuanians were the last pagan peoples of Europe to be converted, and the ancient ways run deep and are still very much alive through Lithuanian land and its inhabitants. Yet, knowledge of Lithuanian pagan heritage is often eclipsed by the suns, moons and pantheons of larger, more populous places. In this workshop, we will explore some of the native magic and lore of this Baltic state.

Marking Time While Walking Towards Death, Through Transition and In Mourning

Words, Deeds and Artifacts of Being Present. A Discussion and Sharing of Our Processes. How do we mark the passage of Our Time? Our Deaths? Our Changes? Our Loves? Our Lives? Come and share your thoughts and practices while creating an Offering to that Process. If you have a way that you track time or transitions, you are welcome to bring that with you to share, whether in physical form or other expression.

Ask Nicely

Mugwort Wand Crafting, Plant Allies & Ethics

Together we will bind mugwort with intention and learn about our plant allies. We have a variety of abundant and local plant allies available to us that can be worked with as alternatives to those most commonly used, misused, and overused in popular culture. Ethical guidelines for working with herbs, connecting with personal ancestry, and various applications of the use of herbs in our lives and practices will be discussed. Come connect with our mugwort ally for this sacred plant talk.

Queer Paganism: Embracing Your Sacred Otherness

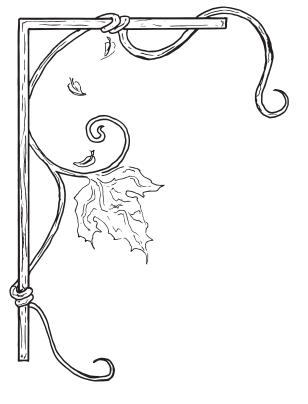

"As the blade is to the male, so the cup is to the female..." Modern day Pagan practices often follow a male/female, fertility-based, system, which can be alienating and difficult to navigate for queer Pagans. It may even be a deterrent for queer folks in the early stages of exploring Pagan spirituality. In this interactive discussion, Jay and Scott, creators of the Witches Betwixt podcast, discuss the trials and tribulations of being a queer Pagan as well as ways to shape your craft in a way that is more well-suited to the needs of queer Pagans.

A Death Cafe for the Pagan Community

The Death Cafe model & movement holds the objective to "increase awareness of death with a view to helping people make the most of their lives". A Death Cafe is a place for folks to gather and partake in a facilitated, group directed, open discussion of death, with no agenda, objectives, or themes. This particular Death Cafe is being held for the greater Pagan community. Learn more at deathcafe.com.

Cat

From a background of world music, blues, rock, Jazz, and medieval folk rock, Cat is stepping out of the genre boxes to play the music that comes from a lifetime of lessons, some good, some hard. His latest CD "Pisces" is an exploration of duality, of viewing the world through the unique lens of being a neuro-divergent, non-binary, multi-instrumentalist. The songs range from World music inspired acoustic instrumentals, to straight up rock, to country style blues. Come and enjoy your time together.

"They mean something specific to me when I write them, but one they're inside the listener they tend to take on new life... the songs aren't really mine any more, what you get out of the song is all yours."

Bad Idea Entertainment

Circus, Sideshow, Fire Performance, and Illusion. A fine line between Art and Entertainment.

Cloud The Pagan Rapper

Cloud is a Pagan Rapper and Spoken Word Poet from the Southern New Jersey/ Philadelphia Area. He has been a practicing Witch for over 20 years. He is High Priest of the Moon Willow Circle located in Southern New Jersey and works as Host for International Pagan Radio's YouTube Channel, creates video content on his personal channel, and Co Hosts the Witchcraft Grenade! podcast. His music was designed to push boundaries within Pagan Music by bringing a mainstream feel. His love for Hip Hop and love of his craft have combined to create a unique brand of Pagan Hip Hop with lessons about Witchcraft, combatting misconceptions, and raising awareness taking the forefront. He loves Pagan Music of all different forms, plays multiple instruments and sings.....a little bit.

His travels have taken him many places and he has studied in different traditions, thus making his path quite crooked and eclectic.

His First Album Misconceptions released in March 2020, has been Nominated for a 2020 Witchie Award by The Witches Sabbat for Most Outstanding Album of the Year, and was awarded the 2020 Order of the Silver Chalice award from the Corellian Tradition of Wicca.

A member of the IPMAA, he is currently nominated for Male Artist of the year for 2021 and is humbled to be mentioned in such amazing company.

His next effort Modern Bard is due out in 2021 and is a conceptual album that will soon be accompanied by a novella written by Cloud himself to expand on the story.
